

Finding The Right Medical Services Provider

To Meet Your Needs for Pre-Placement, Fitness for Duty, and Return to Work Medical Examinations, and Work-Related Injury/Illness Treatment

Finding the right medical services provider and ensuring your organization's needs can be met starts with a screening interview process with questions based on expected performance standards. The following list of interview questions was developed to assist you to identify the right medical services provider whether you are looking for pre-placement physicals, return to work physicals, or work-related injury/illness medical care.

We recommend that you rate each medical services provider on a scale of 1-5 (1 being the least, and 5 being the best) so that you can compare your impressions when interviewing multiple providers. We also recommend you highlight those issues that are most important to your organization to help you ensure the appropriate attention is given to those issues during the interview process. The blank lines at the end are provided for any additional questions you want to include.
